REPORT OF EXPERT'S TALK SERIES

Speaker: Dr. Yaspal Sharma, Dean Academic Affairs (RPSDC)

Topic: Swami Vivekananda's Idea of Tolerance

An event was organized to celebrate National Youth Day on 12.01.2021. The same was notified through a notice dated 04.01.2021. The notice was circulated through college notice boards. More than eighty students joined the event. Program coordinator Dr. Rajpal welcomed the Chief. He introduced the topic of the talk in brief. Dr. Yashpal; from Department of Chemistry, RPS Degree College Balana was the Key Speaker of the event. The key speaker explained the idea of tolerance in radical times of global threats. He took a deep dig at the growing global intolerance. The key speaker accentuated on worrisome fact that the growing number of warring nations is really a fatal global challenge. It is high time peace and tolerance should be restored in the world to safeguard humanity from the danger looming large over all of us. This is the high time that the world needs to tread the path of tolerance paved by great Indian thinker and monk Swami Vivekanand.

Program coordinator Dr. Rajpal highlighted on the power of concentration. He said that the true homage to the departed soul of Swami Vivekananda ji may at best be paid by learning concentration from one of the greatest thinkers India had. A plethora of questions were being posited by the participants made the event meaningful in the true sense of the world.

Topic: Idea of Trusteeship in Gandhian Thought

An online event was organized to celebrate Gandhi Jayanti on 02.10.2020. The same was notified through a notice dated 25.09.2020. The notice was circulated through WhatsApp groups. More than one hundred students joined the online event. Program coordinator Dr. Rajpal welcomed the Chief. He introduced the topic of the talk in brief. Dr. Rajkumar Verma, from Department of English, Aurobindo College was the Key Speaker of the event. The key speaker explained the idea of trusteeship in Gandhian thought. He took a deep dig at the consumerist contemporary culture that is rampant across the globe. The wastage of food in wedding and other social function is also against Gandhian idea of Trusteeship. Gandhi believed in: "Nature has enough for everyone's need, but not for everyone's greed".

Gandhi's blistering attack on ever evolving man's greedy nature can be considered as the underpinning/s of Gandhian idea of trusteeship. Apart from the key speaker, Dr. Mahesh K. Yadav (Director RPSGOI) and Dean Affairs Dr. Yaspal Sharma also expressed their views on the teachings of Gandhi Ji. The participants asked question pertaining to the relevance of Gandhian thoughts in the belligerent nations/ states. A plethora of questions were being posited by the participants made the event meaningful in the true sense of the world.
