

Equal Opportunity Cell

Equal Opportunity Cell (EOC) plays a pivotal role in promoting equality, inclusivity, and social justice within the educational institutions. At Ahir college, Rewari, the EOC has been established with the purpose of ensuring equal access to education, facilities and opportunities for all students, irrespective of their caste, religion, gender, or other social identities. The primary objective of the EOC at ACR is to eradicate any form of discrimination or bias that may hinder student's access to education.
